Scoring Rules

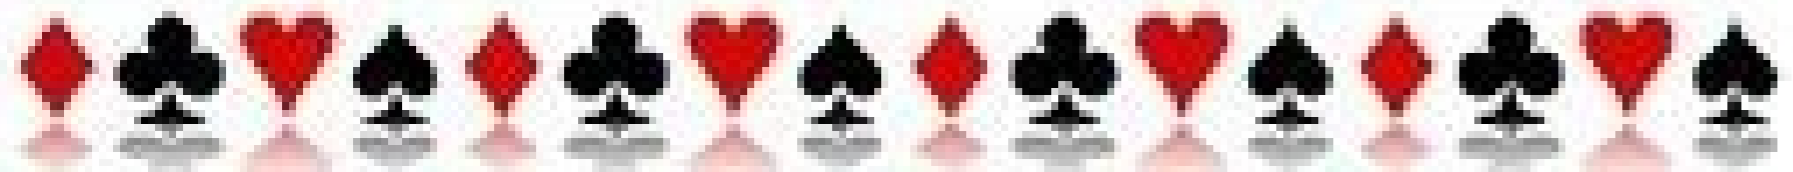

Three outcomes for hand are as follows:

- One player says "gin" (a full hand of sets)
- Or player knocks (most of the hand is in sets with some deadwood)
- All 20 cards have been played/used with no gin or knock from either player. (score points in box lowest score wins)

Goal of the Game = The game ends with the first person reaching 100 points.

Points Chart Calculations

Card/ Action	Calculation Instructions
Ace	Value added of 1
2-10	Face value of Each Card
Jack, Queen, King	Value of 10
Gin (Player must say "gin" or see below for BONUS) Put score in Box 1	Tally Totals for each Player. Add the value of opponents of unmatched cards (Deadwood) PLUS 25 points to player who has GIN.
Knock – Player must have fewer Deadwood Points than the Knock player-Player must say "Knock"	Tally Totals for each Player. Add the difference of points between players. Add points to the lowest scorer (Even if it is not the Player who says "Knock").
Knock Opponent Bonus – Player has equal or lower amount of Deadwood than the Knock Player	Add the difference from above box PLUS 25 points called the "Undercut".
Game Bonus – First player to reach 100 points	Add 100 bonus points.
Box Bonus – Number of boxes more than each opponent	Add 20 points for each box.
Shutout Box – One player wins all of the game hands.	Add 100 bonus points.

I made her a pad of Gin Rummy scoresheets! We showed you before how easy it is to create your own custom notebooks, and this project used the same simple technique. Gin Rummy Score Pad Keep track of your Gin Rummy scores in style with our premium score sheets! With 110 formatted score sheets (2 x 4 sets of games per page) you can easily track your scores over time. I'm pretty sure that when all my dear grandmother's friends see these, I'll have to make some for them too! Share Leave a comment: ! Image not available for Color: To view this video download Flash Player Activate and hold the button to confirm you are A. After a nice dinner this weekend, my grandmother did exactly as I expected and asked me to join her in her favorite card game, Gin Rummy. Just get started with our free download for a printable Gin Rummy Score Sheet. Each page you print will create four sheets for the score sheet pad, so print as many sheets you want, cut them apart, then stack them. Then follow the directions in our tutorial to glue the edges into a pad, using the padding compound we sell in our Amazon store. Thank you! Try a different method It makes a great gift idea for any card player!
